

BONDS

BONDS are debt investments. They represent a loan you make to an institution – a corporation, government, or government agency – in exchange for interest payments during a specific term plus the repayment of your principal when the bond comes due. Because the income you receive from bonds is generally fixed at the time the bond is created, bonds are often considered fixed-income investments.

<http://www.investinginbonds.com/> Guide to investing in bonds. Sponsored by the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA).

<http://www.bondsonline.com/> Instant access to and extensive coverage of over 3.5 million stocks, bonds, indexes and other securities covering major and emerging markets.

<http://www.moodys.com/> Moody's is one of the leaders in providing bond information. Free registration is required for access.

<http://www.smartmoney.com/> Smart Money magazine has a section about investing in bonds. Click on the "Investing" tab and click on the link for "Bonds".

<http://www.treasurydirect.gov/> THE place to go to learn about investing in US Government bonds.